

Bowery

Re-Read the 89 Section---Isn't it reasonable to hope to surmount the stumbling blocks enumerated by the Lord here; and accomplish it now?

Re-read Mosiah 18---Can we each, bear each other's burdens, mourn with those that mourn; living a life of compassion & kindness and yet stand up for God at all times and in all places?

Re-Read Jacob 2nd 3rd chapters---Do we have to wear stiff necks and swelled heads as we become successful in our life's work?? Is it not possible for us to clothe the naked and give food to those who are hungry and serve the needs of our families and others, who we call our neighbors?

Re-read Mosiah 12---Can we not serve our neighbors and visit the sick; and thus, serve our God? Are we not seeing to it, that there are not poor among us?

Can we not be modest in our dress, demeanor, speech and manners?

Durst not we not be humble, prayerful and yet earnestly involved in vigilant and righteous endeavors?

I will not belabor the point, but I do believe we need to be about our Father's business, in all of the above and working in the Temples of Our God toward the salvation of our dead ancestry and accomplishing much good, without being ordered to do so, or prodded to do so.

3-26-2000